Nicholas County Community Foundation Grant Guidelines

The Nicholas County Community Foundation (NCCF) is making discretionary grants from the Seelinger Family Foundation Fund and the Fund for Nicholas County.

The Seelinger Family Foundation Fund is a field of interest fund “dedicated to maintaining and improving the areas of Summersville, West Virginia and Nicholas County, West Virginia, including but not limited to, their schools and educational systems, parks and recreation commissions, extracurricular organizations, governing bodies, athletic associations, fine arts centers and cultural and historical societies.” Only 501(c)(3) not for profit organizations, public institutions and governmental entities meeting the criteria above are eligible to apply. Under the terms of the fund agreement “the interests of churches and other religious organization are not eligible for funding.

The Fund for Nicholas County fund is our unrestricted fund. These funds are used to assist organizations that serve all of Nicholas County.

Grants awards will typically range between $250 - $10,000. No grant requests over $10,000 will be reviewed.

Organizations will be notified after November 1, 2025 of the status of their grant request. No work on the project may begin until notification of grant funding has been received.

Only complete applications, with all the required attachments, which are submitted on or before September 1, 2025 at 5pm will be reviewed.
